CHAPTER B

Share Capital – Shares

Article 5

Share capital

1) 1.1. The Company's share capital was initially set at the amount of one hundred million (100,000,000) drachmas, divided into ten thousand (10,000) shares of a par (nominal) value of ten thousand (10,000) drachmas each.

1.2. During the General Meeting of Company shareholders on 30.06.2003 it was decided to increase the share capital by the amount of twenty-nine Euros and seventy-one cents (29.71) (i.e. 10,125 drachmas) through an increase of the par (nominal) value of each share from ten thousand (10,000) to ten thousand one (10,001) drachmas, i.e. to twenty-nine Euros and thirty-five cents (29.35), and also to convert the share capital and the share's par (nominal) value from drachmas to Euros. Following this, the share capital amounts to two hundred and ninety-three thousand five hundred (293,500.00) Euros, divided into ten thousand (10,000) shares of a par (nominal) value of twenty-nine Euros and thirty-five cents (29.35) each.

1.3. An increase of share capital was decided in the resolution passed by the Company's General Meeting on 5.12.2006, through the capitalisation of undistributed profits of the year 2005 (fiscal year from 1.1.2005 to 31.12.2005) amounting to 76,500 Euros, with an increase of the par(nominal) value of each share from 29.35 Euros to 37 Euros. Following the above increase, the Company's share capital amounts to 370,000 Euros (three hundred and seventy thousand Euros), divided into 10,000 shares of a par (nominal) value of 37 Euros each.

1.4. An increase of share capital by the amount of 330,000.00 Euros was decided in the resolution passed by the Company's General Meeting on 17.10.2008, through the capitalisation of undistributed profits (years 2004-2007) amounting to 328,010.61 Euros and the payment of 1,989.39 Euros in cash by the shareholders in proportion to each shareholder's share of participation. It was also decided to reduce the par (nominal) value of all company shares from 37 Euros to 0.35 Euros, dividing the share capital into 2,000,000 shares of a par (nominal) value of 0.35 Euros each.

1.5. An increase of share capital was decided in the resolution passed by the Company's General Meeting on 01.04.2009, through the capitalisation of profits of year 2008, amounting to 1,050,000 Euros, with the free issuance of 3,000,000 new ordinary registered shares with voting rights, with par (nominal) value 0.35 Euros each. Also, the same resolution of the company's GM decided on the further increase of the company's share capital by 350,000 Euros by issuance of 1,000,000 new ordinary registered shares with voting rights, of a par (nominal) value of 0.35 Euros each, and authorization was granted to the Board of Directors to determine within four months after the GM resolution, the offer price of the new shares (including the price range), and it was decided that any difference from the issue of new shares above par, will be credited to the related special share premium reserve account.

Following the above increase, the Company's share capital amounts to 2,100,000 Euros, divided into 6,000,000 registered shares of a par (nominal) value of 0.35 Euros each.

1.6. An increase of share capital by the amount of 6,650,000 (six million six hundred and fifty thousand) Euros was decided in the resolution passed by the Company's General Meeting on 28.09.2009, by use of part of the available funds of the relevant special share premium reserve account, which resulted from the share capital increase realized after the General Meeting of 01.04.2009, by issuance of 19,000,000 new ordinary registered voting shares, of a par(nominal) value of 0.35 Euros each, and the free ensuing proportional allocation to shareholders of 19 new shares for each 6 shares held.

Following the above increase, the Company's share capital amounts to eight million seventy five hundred 8,750,000 Euros, divided into 25,000,000 nominal shares of a par (nominal) value 0.35 Euros each.

1.7. An increase of share capital was decided in the resolution passed by the Company's Extraordinary General Meeting on 25.11.2014: a) by the amount of €204,607.76, which corresponds to the remaining contributed share capital of the Absorbed Company under the name "KESTREL INFORMATION SYSTEMS SOCIÉTÉ ANONYME" and b) by the amount of €0.14 as a result of capitalization of part of the share premium account, that is by the total amount of €204,607.90.

Following the above, the share capital of the Company currently amounts to eight million nine hundred fifty four thousand six hundred seven euro and ninety cents (€ 8,954,607.90) and is divided into twenty five millions five hundred eighty four thousand five hundred ninety four (25,584,594) ordinary registered shares of a nominal value of € 0.35 each.

1.8 An decrease of the share capital was decided in the resolution passed by the Company's Annual General Meeting on 14.06.2021 in compliance with article 119 par. 4 of L. 4548/2018 with setting off the accumulated losses of the previous years by the amount of 4.988.995,83 euros with the simultaneous decrease of the nominal value of the shares of the amount of 0,195 per share. After this capital decrease the share capital of the Company will amount to 3.965.612,07 euros divided into twenty five millions five hundred eighty four thousand five hundred ninety four (25,584,594) ordinary registered shares of a nominal value of € 0,155 each.

Following the above, the share capital of the Company currently amounts to three million nine hundred sixty five thousand six hundred twelve euro and seven cents (€ 3.965.612,07) divided into twenty five millions five hundred eighty four thousand five hundred ninety four (25,584,594) ordinary registered shares of a nominal value of € 0,155 each.

2) a. A resolution of the General Meeting taken with increased quorum and majority is required for the increase of the share capital of the Company. The General Meeting may authorise the Board of Directors to determine the disposal price of the new shares or, in the event of issuance of preference shares providing their holders with the right to receive interest, the interest rate and the calculation method thereof. The duration of said authorisation is determined by the relevant resolution of the General Meeting and may not exceed one (1) year. In this case, the deadline for the payment of the share capital starts as of the date of the decision of the Board of Directors, which set out the disposal price of the shares or the interest rate and the calculation method thereof, as the case may be. The resolutions of the General Meeting increasing the Company's share capital constitute amendment of these Articles of Association and are subject to the publication formalities of Article 13 of Law 4548/2018.

b. By virtue of a resolution of the General Meeting, the Board of Directors may be granted, for a period of time that shall not exceed five (5) years, with the power to increase, by means of a decision taken by majority of at least two-thirds (2/3) of all its members, the Company's share capital, wholly or partly, by issuing new shares up to an amount, which may not exceed three times the capital that is paid-up on the date of the relevant resolution of the General Meeting (extraordinary capital increase). This power of the Board of Directors may be renewed by a new resolution of the General Meeting for a period of time, which shall not exceed five (5) years for each renewal and which shall start as of the lapse of the period of time provided by the previous resolution of the General Meeting that granted to the Board of Directors or renewed the power to increase the share capital. The resolutions of the General Meeting delegating to the Board of Directors or renewing the power to increase the capital are subject to publicity as per article 13 of Law 4548/2018, as in force.

3) The resolution of the competent corporate body to increase the share capital must specify at least the amount of the capital increase, the means of subscription and the subscription period, the number and the type of the shares to be issued, their nominal value and their disposal price.

4) a. In any case of capital increase, which is not effected through contributions in kind and in any case of issuance of bonds convertible to shares, a preemption right to the entire new capital or bond loan will be granted to the existing shareholders at the time of such issuing, in proportion to their current shareholdings. The competent corporate body that decides to increase the share capital by contributions in kind may determine that the preemptive right of the existing shareholders shall apply in this case as well. In the event that the Company has issued more than one categories of shares, among which the rights to vote or to participate in the profits or in the distribution of liquidation proceeds differ, the capital may be increased through shares of only one of these categories, in which case, the pre-emption right shall be granted to the shareholders of the other categories only after such right is not exercised by the shareholders of the category to which the new shares correspond.

b. The preference right is exercised within the term provided by the corporate body, which decided the increase, and in accordance with the more specific provisions of Article 26 of Law 4548/2018, as in force. Following the expiration of the term set out in the aforementioned provision, shares that have not been subscribed for, are disposed by the Board of Directors at a price not lower than the price paid by the existing shareholders. The corporate body that decided the increase and in any case, the Board of Directors that disposes the unsubscribed shares, as per the aforementioned passage, may offer the shares first to the existing shareholders who already exercised their preference right, as well as to other holders of any securities convertible to shares.

c. The invitation to exercise the pre-emption right, wherein the time limit within which such right should be exercised, must be also mentioned, is published in accordance with article 13 of Law 4548/2018 and on the Company's website.

d. The preference right may be limited or abolished by virtue of a resolution of the General Meeting taken by increased quorum and majority, in accordance with the more specific provisions of Article 27 of Law 4548/2018, as in force. Subject to the terms and conditions of para. 3 of the Article 27 of Law 4548/2018 as in force, in the event that the capital is increased partially by contributions in cash and partially by contributions in kind, the competent corporate body that decides the increase may also decide that the shareholders who contribute in kind are not entitled to participate in the increase, which is effected by contributions in cash, without such decision constituting an exclusion of their pre-emption right.

Article 6

Shares

1) The shares of the company are common registered shares, with a par value of Euro 0.35 each.

2) The company, as long as its shares are negotiated in AIM Italia, , which operates in Milan, does not issue equity instruments on paper, but the company shares are entered without serial numbers in the Register –Book of shareholders and are monitored with entries in this Register - Book. The shareholders are registered in the Register – Book of shareholders, indicating their name or corporate name and their address or registered office, as well as the profession and the nationality of each shareholder. The shareholder’s rights are proved with a relevant certificate which is issued by the company or another person explicitly authorized for this purpose by the Board of Directors. For exercising the shareholder’s rights, if the shares are negotiable in the above market, the certificate of the previous sentence is deposited with the company; in order for the shareholder to participate in the general meeting of the company’s shareholders, a blocking certificate for such shareholder’s shares is also submitted to the company. The certificates of the previous sentence may be contained in the same document.

3) The already existing equity instruments cease to exist upon the commencement of negotiation of the shares in the market of paragraph 1 of this Article. Any existing encumbrances or rights on the shares at the commencement of negotiation of shares in the above market shall be entered in the Record – Register of shareholders of paragraph 2 of this Article, with care of the company.

4) The Register – Book of shareholders may also be maintained electronically or, upon respective decision of the Board of Directors, by a central securities depository, credit institution or investment firm that has the right to hold financial instruments. In any case, as regards the Company, the shareholder who is registered in the Register – Book of shareholders is deemed to be a shareholder.

5) The Company may issue the following types of securities:

(a) shares and

(b) bonds

The above securities may be issued in different categories, as specified by Law or decided by the competent corporate body that decides their issue. The Company may issue securities of the same category in successive series.

CHAPTER C

Shareholders

Article 7

Shareholder Rights and Obligations

- 1) The shareholders exercise their rights pertaining to company management only through their participation in the General Meeting, in which each share grants the right to one vote.

2) The Chairman of the Board of Directors presides in the meetings. When the Chairman is absent or unable to perform their duties, they are represented in their full responsibilities by the Vice- Chairman. If the Vice- Chairman is absent or unable to perform their duties, they are replaced by the Managing Director, following a related decision by the Board of Directors. Finally, in similar cases the Managing Director is replaced by another Director, who is appointed by the Board of Directors.

3) Also, the Board of Directors may elect its Secretary, who may, but does not have to, be a Director.

Article 22

Substitution of a member of the Board of Directors

- 1) If a position of a Director becomes vacant due to death, resignation or for any other reason, then the remaining Directors, provided that they are at least three (3), must elect a provisional replacement for the remaining term of office of the Director being replaced. The resolution of the election is subject to publication and is announced by the Board of Directors to the first General Meeting to take place after such substitution, which can replace the elected Directors even if no such item is included in the meeting's agenda.
- 2) The actions of the provisional replacement elected by the Board of Directors are valid even if the General Meeting refuses to validate his/her election and elects another definitive Director.

Article 23

Convocation of the Board of Directors

- 1) The Board of Directors convenes at the company's registered address at least once per month, following an invitation by its Chairman. The Board of Directors convenes validly away from its registered address, at a different location, either in Greece or abroad, provided that all the Directors are attending or are being represented in this meeting and that none of them is opposed to carrying out the meeting and to making decisions. The Board of Directors may convene via teleconference following invitation to the members of the Board of Directors that contains all necessary information with respect to their attendance at the meeting.
- 2) The Board of Directors is convoked by invitation of its Chairman or of his legal substitute, which is notified to the members of the Board of Directors at least two (2) business days prior to the meeting, and at least five (5) business days in advance, if the meeting is to be held outside the company's registered seat. The invitation must clearly mention the matters on the agenda, otherwise decisions may only be made if all the Directors are attending or are being represented and none of them is opposed to decisions being made.

3) The convocation of the Board of Directors may be requested by at least two (2) of its members, through a request submitted to its Chairman or to his legal substitute, who must convoke the Board of Directors within seven (7) days from the submission of such request. . If the Chairman or his legal substitute refuses to convoke the Board of Directors within the above period of time, the members of the Board of Directors who requested the convocation are entitled to convoke the Board of Directors within five (5) days from the expiry of the aforementioned seven-day period of time, by sending the relevant invitation to the other members of the Board of Directors. Their request as per the above must also clearly mention the matters which the Board of Directors is to deal with, otherwise such request shall be deemed impermissible.

Article 24

Representation of Directors – Quorum – Majority- Decision making by rotation

- 1) The Board of Directors is in quorum and convenes validly when half of its members plus one are present or represented, provided that in any event at least three (3) Directors must be present in person. Any resulting fraction is not taken into account when calculating the quorum.
- 2) Any Director who is unable to attend the meeting may be represented exclusively by another Director, by virtue of a specific written authorisation. Each Director may represent only one non-attending Director. In this case, such Director shall hold two (2) votes.

CHAPTER E

Control

Article 28

Auditors

In order for a resolution to be validly passed by the General Meeting on the Annual Accounts (Annual Financial Statements), these must have been previously audited by an Auditing Firm of Certified Auditors in accordance with the provisions of Laws 4449/2017, 4308/2014 and any applicable specific legislation. The auditors are appointed by the ordinary General Meeting, according to the provisions of Law 4449/2017, as in force.

CHAPTER F

Annual Financial Statements – Profit and Loss Statements

Article 29

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year has a duration of twelve months. It starts on 1 January and ends on 31 December of each year.

As an exception, the first fiscal year shall start upon the lawful incorporation of the Company and shall end on 31 December 1999.

Article 30

Annual Financial Statements/ Management Report / Corporate Governance Statement

1) At the end of each fiscal year, the Board of Directors prepares the annual financial statements or, where appropriate, the annual consolidated financial statements in accordance with the provisions of Law 4308/2014 and Articles 145 et seq. of Law 4548/2018. The financial statements are an undivided whole and present in a reasonable manner (fair presentation) the identifiable assets (assets), the liabilities, the equity, the income, expenses, profits and losses, as well as the cash flow of each period of time, as applicable, according to the law. Particularly, the Board of Directors is required to prepare in accordance with the aforementioned provisions: (a) the Balance Sheet or Statement of Financial Position, (b) the Income Statement, (c) the Statement of Changes in Equity, (d) the Statement of Cash flow, (e) the Appendix. The financial statements along with the annual report of the auditors are submitted for approval to the ordinary General Meeting and are accompanied by an explanatory report by the Board of Directors, mentioning all the information set out in article 150 of Law 4548/2018.

2) The annual financial statements (Balance Sheet etc.) as duly approved by the ordinary General Meeting, the management report of the Board of Directors set forth in the preceding paragraph, along with the relevant audit certificate issued by the Audit Company, are published within at least twenty (20) full days from their approval by the ordinary General Meeting, in the form and with the content on the basis of which the Audit Company has issued the audit certificate, and are accompanied by the full text of the audit report.

3) In order for the General Meeting to validly approve the company's financial statements, these must have been audited by the company's auditors and specifically validated by: (a) the Chairman of the Board of Directors or his deputy; (b) the Managing or Executive Director or, if no such director exists or if such director is at the same time the Chairman or his legal substitute, by a member of the Board of Directors; and (c) by the duly responsible accountant, who is certified by the Hellenic Chamber of Commerce and holds a First Class License for the preparation of the financial statements. In case of a disagreement on the legality of the method in which the Financial Statements are drafted, the above persons must report their objections to the General Meeting in writing.

4) In any case, the provisions of Law 4548/2018 as in force shall apply.

Article 31

Distribution of Profits

1) Without prejudice to the provisions of article 159 of the Law 4548/2018, the distribution of the company's net profits takes place as follows:

a) The amounts of credit line items in the income statement, which are not realized earnings, are deducted .

b) The amounts to be withhold, pursuant to Law and the Articles of Association, for the formation of the statutory reserve, are deducted

c) The required amount for the payment of the minimum dividend is held. The minimum dividend is fixed at thirty-five percent (35%) of the net profits, after the deductions referred in Article 31 paragraphs (1a) and (1b) and is paid in cash. By a decision of the General Assembly taken by an increased quorum and majority, the percentage may be reduced, but not below 10 percent (10%).

d) The balance of net profits, as well as any other profits that may arise and be disposed of, as per article 159 of Law 4548/2018, is made available according to the decisions of the General Assembly.

2) The shareholders participate in the net profits, following the approval of the Annual Accounts (Annual Financial Statements) by the General Meeting and the authorized amount to be distributed is paid to them within two months from the resolution by the General Meeting, which approved the Annual Financial Statements.

CHAPTER G

Dissolution and Liquidation

Article 32

Reasons for Company Dissolution

1) The Company is dissolved: a) Upon expiration of its duration specified in the Articles of Association, save where an extension of duration has previously been decided by the General Meeting; (b) by a resolution passed by the General Meeting; (c) when the Company is declared bankrupt. (d) in case a request for declaration in bankruptcy is denied on grounds of lack of resources to cover the costs of the procedure; (e) by a Court order, in accordance with articles 165 and 166 of the Law 4548/2018 as in force.

2) The accumulation of all company's shares by one person does not constitute grounds for dissolving the company.

3) In case the total of company shareholders' funds becomes less than half (1/2) of the paid-up share capital, the Board of Directors must convoke the General Meeting within a period of six (6) months from the end of the fiscal year, so that the General Meeting will decide on whether the company shall be dissolved or whether another measure shall be taken.

Article 33

Liquidation

1) With the exception of bankruptcy, the dissolution of the company is followed by its liquidation. In the case of subparagraph (a) of par. 1 of article 32 hereof, the Board of Directors acts as liquidator until liquidators are appointed by the General Meeting. In the case of subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph of the same article as above, the General Meeting also appoints the liquidators, through the same resolution. The liquidators appointed by the General Meeting may be up to four, shareholders or not, and exercise all the powers of the Board of Directors which are related to the procedure and the purpose of the liquidation, as such may have been limited by the General Meeting, by the decisions of which they must abide. The appointment of liquidators ipso jure entails the cessation of the powers of the members of the Board of Directors.

2) Upon assuming their duties, the liquidators appointed by the General Meeting must conduct an inventory of corporate assets and publish a balance sheet of the start of the liquidation that is not subject to approval by the General Meeting. In any case, the inventory must be completed within three (3) months from assuming their duties. In addition, the liquidators must draft and publish, on an annual basis, interim financial statements, which are subject to the General Meeting's approval pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 7 of the article 168 of Law 4548/2018, provided that the conditions of this provision are met.

3) The liquidators have the same obligation on the completion of the liquidation as well. To that end, financial statements on the completion of the liquidation are drawn up, which are approved by the General Meeting and are subject to publication. The General Meeting also decides on the approval of the overall work performed by the liquidators and the discharge of the auditors.

4) The General Meeting of shareholders reserves all its rights throughout the liquidation.

5) The liquidators must complete, without delay, any pending corporate affairs, convert the company's assets into cash, pay off its debts and collect its receivables. They may also engage in new activities provided that such activities serve the purpose of the liquidation and the company's interests. The liquidators may also dispose of the company's immovable property, the corporate business in its entirety or in business units or the individual fixed assets, provided that three (3) months have lapsed since its dissolution. Within the three-month time frame from the company's dissolution, each shareholder or/and lender may request from the Single-Member Court of First Instance at the company's registered address, which adjudicates according to articles 739 seq. of the Greek Civil Procedure Code, to determine the minimum selling price for the immovable property, for the business units or departments or for the entire company, the Court's decision being binding upon the liquidators and not subject to ordinary or extraordinary legal remedy.

6) The liquidation Balance Sheets are approved by the General Meeting of shareholders, which also decides on the discharge of liquidators from any liability.

7) If the liquidation stage exceeds three years, the liquidators are obliged to convene the General Meeting, to which they shall submit a plan for the acceleration and the completion of the liquidation. This plan includes a report on any liquidation operations performed up to that date, the reasons for the delay and the measures recommended for its prompt completion. Such measures may include Company's waiver of any rights, recourses, legal remedies, lawsuits and applications, if their pursuit is disadvantageous, as compared with the expected benefits, or uncertain or time-consuming. The above measures may also include settlements, renegotiations or termination of contracts or/and the execution of new ones, if deemed necessary. The General Meeting approves the plan with increased quorum and majority.

CHAPTER H

Article 34

General Provision

As regards issues that are not regulated by these Articles of Association, the provisions of Law, particularly the provisions of Law 4548/2018, as currently in force and as in force from time to time, shall apply in a supplementary and interpretative manner.
